Two Great Temptations

So What?

Discussion Questions

1. What is significant about both of these stories? What are some similarities and differences that you can observe?
2. Why do you think God led Jesus to be tempted by Satan in the wilderness? Why do you think God left a tree in the midst of the garden which would tempt Adam and Eve?
3. How did Adam and Eve handle the temptations from Satan? What can we learn from their failure?
4. How did Jesus handle the temptations from Satan? What can we learn from his success?
5. In what ways are you the most tempted to sin? How can you fight against those temptations?
6. Looking at both settings, who had better circumstances to overcome temptation? What circumstances do you sometimes use as excuses for your sin?
7. What were the massive consequences that came from Adam's and Jesus' response to temptation?
8. How did Jesus' obedience fix Adam's disobedience?
9. What can we praise God for as we look at both of these stories?
