A Father's Final Farewell

- I. It's not about you!
- II. God Knows you...
 - a) Personally
 - b) Physically
 - c) Prophetically
- III. Be faithful with the small things.
- IV. Reach out to the lost.
- V. Pick up the pace.
- VI. Don't waste your dash.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. If you knew you were going to die tomorrow, what would you say to your loved ones today?
2. What is the #1 thing that will matter on the day you die?
3. Why don't we need to always be in control?
4. According to Romans 8:28, why is there no such thing as bad news?
5. Does your faith demonstrate you believe things are falling apart or falling into place?
6. According to Psalm 1, what must happen to have everything we do be prosperous?
7. Do you actively cast all your cares on the Lord, or do you handle them yourself?
8. John 4:24 says to worship God in spirit and in truth. Are you always honest before the Lord?
9. Why doesn't God want to give you amnesia, so you forget the terrible things you have done?
10. Why does God call us to be faithful with the small things?
11. Do you actively share your faith with others?
12. Can you honestly say you live for God's glory or your own?
