Discussion Questions

1. What things are you thankful to God for about our country? List as many things as possible. No complaining!

2. Which of the following best describes your current place in life? Explain your choice.
 - a. I don't have a relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ.
 - b. I've lost my way with the Lord and with His desires.
 - c. I'm faithfully following the Lord and His commands.

3. What did you learn or were reminded about the future judgment of Christ?
 - a. What things in your life are you concerned about on that judgment day?
 - b. What areas of your life do you hope are "gold, silver, and precious stones," resulting in eternal rewards?

4. Read Matthew 28:18-20, and then describe what it says in your own words. Would Jesus say that you are being obedient to His command in this passage? Why or why not?

5. Read Acts 2:42. Does this describe your life? Why or why not?

6. How do you think you could excel more in your part of the mission of making disciples?

7. How do the story of Solomon from last week, the future judgment of Christ, and our primary mission of making disciples relate to each other?

8. Have the messages the past two weeks been any sort of "wake-up call" to you? Why or why not?
