Obadiah

Discussion Questions:

1. Why do you think God would use a family that is filled with so much deceit and selfishness to fulfill his plan to redeem the world?
2. How does this encourage you as you think about the shortcomings and failures in your own life, and whether you can be of any true value to God?
3. How have you seen the destruction that comes from a bitter heart in your own life?
4. Why do you think that sometimes it's so difficult to deal with our own bitterness?
5. What do you think is the greatest remedy for a heart full of bitterness towards someone else?
6. One of the reasons Edom was being judged was because of the pride in their heart and the blindness that it caused, so they were not able to see their own sin. Is there anything in your life right now that you might be blind to?
7. What character traits of God do you think are reflected in the book of Obadiah?
8. As you reflect on your own life, and the struggles that you're dealing with, how is the encouragement that you receive from knowing that God will have ultimate victory in this life and the one to come directly applicable to where you're at right now?
